

Dave Frescoln

UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation Board member, Dave Frescoln is a seasoned senior executive with more than forty years of experience in industry and finance. The Foundation is delighted to have Dave's expert guidance, leadership, and knowledge of strategic planning as we look to the future of serving older adults.

Dave retired as Vice Chairman and CEO of the Flint Group in 2008, after seventeen years with the company and its predecessor, Flint Ink Corporation. During this time, the company grew from a $450 million U.S. enterprise to a $3.5 billion global leader in production of printing inks, chemicals, and supplies to the graphic arts industry.

Prior to his work with the Flint Group, Dave served as Vice President of Finance at Williams International Corporation and Manager of Financial Control at Sikorsky Aircraft Division of United Technologies.

A certified public accountant, speaker, and contributing author, Dave has served on the boards of the Flint Ink Corporation, Flint Group, and Edwards Brothers, Inc.; as well as the Advisory Board of the School of Accountancy at the Daniels College of Business, University of Denver, his alma mater; the National Association of Printing Ink Manufacturers; and the Detroit Chapter of the Financial Executives Institute.
