

Michelle Baldwin Henderson, Chief Human Resources Officer, Brio Living Services

Michelle has over 25 years of experience in human resources leadership in healthcare and senior living organizations. She has served as Chief Human Resources Officer for Brio Living Services (formerly UMRC & Porter Hills) since March 2019. In this role, she is responsible for all aspects of human resources for Brio Living Services. From 2015 to 2019, when UMRC and Porter Hills affiliated under shared leadership, Michelle served as Vice President of Human Resources for UMRC. During her tenure, Brio Living Services has achieved certifications as a Great Place To Work®, and Best and Brightest® workplace at both the regional and national levels and, most recently, has become a Certified Age-Friendly Employer.

Michelle's knowledge as a human resources professional and healthcare experience is an asset to the organization. Michelle holds a bachelor's degree in human resources administration, and a master's degree in human resources and organizational development. Michelle holds certification as a Senior Professional of Human Resources (SPHR) and as a Senior Certified Professional (SPC) through SHRM. Previously, she has served as Director of Human Resources at the University of Michigan Health System and as Director of Human Resources and Customer Services at Integrated Health Associates.

Michelle believes in giving back to the community and currently serves on the boards of Huron Valley Ambulance, Thome PACE (Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly), and Huron Valley PACE. She also volunteers as a patient advisor at the University of Michigan Mott Children's Hospital and in various roles at Huron Valley Humane Society.

Michelle is passionate about living the best life you can, lifelong learning, and bringing your whole self forward where you can serve, grow, and age well. "This is why I love Brio Living Services' Mission and Guiding Beliefs."
