

Michael "Mike" Shore

Mike Shore is currently Chair of the Brio Living Services Board of Trustees (formerly UMRC & Porter Hills) and has served the board since 2018. During that time, he has also served on the Board of Directors of the UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation. His additional board and committee roles have included Board Chair of Thome PACE (Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly) in Jackson, Chair of the Community and Home-Based Services Committee, and service on the UMRC & Porter Hills Finance Committee and UMRC & Porter Hills Foundation Investment Committee.

Mike is retired from CMS Energy in Jackson, Michigan, where he served for 35 years in numerous management positions, including human resources regulatory affairs, nuclear operations, and fuel supply. He rose in the ranks to Vice President and Chief Risk Officer before retiring in 2007. Mike is a graduate of Central Michigan University.

His lifelong residency in Jackson has offered him many opportunities to engage in local nonprofit organizations. He served on the Jackson County United Way Board as Campaign Chair and Board Chair. He also served on the boards of Ella Sharp Museum, Nonprofit Network, Physicians Health Plan, Jackson Health Network, Henry Ford Allegiance Health System, and the Allegiance Health Legacy Corporation.

Why I serve as a Brio Living Services Board Member: "I serve on the Brio Living Services Board as my previous experience on health care boards showed that senior citizens were in need of special services to assist them in their advancing years. Brio Living Services offers a full array of such care while maintaining its faith-based nonprofit status."
