

Sally Andreatta

Sally Andreatta joined the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board in 2023. Sally brings fourteen years of experience as a nonprofit executive and currently serves as the senior vice president of program and marketing for Replay Toys. She previously served as executive director of the Newaygo County Community Collaborative (NC3). In this role, she led a cross-sector collaborative of county organizations managing and improving the use of resources and delivering effective community-based services to Newaygo County.

Sally holds an MBA in business administration from Southern New Hampshire University and a graduate certificate in nonprofit leadership. She also has extensive professional education, including leadership training from the Corona Chamber of Commerce; diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) training and board member training from Grand Valley State University; and fundraising training from the IUPUI Lilly School of Philanthropy.

Active in communities across Michigan and California, Sally serves as a board member for the West Michigan Partnership for Children and the Association of California Community Energy Services, and as executive board member of the Orange County School of the Arts and the McKinley Children's Center. She is also a member of the Fremont Rotary Club.

Sally brings to the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board a wealth of nonprofit experience, making her a valuable addition to the board.
