

Natalie R. Brown, SPHR, SHRM-SCP

Natalie Brown joined the Brio Living Services' Board of Trustees in 2024. She brings nearly 20 years of experience as a leader in human resources management, providing recommendations and feedback to leadership and executives as a strategic business partner.

Currently, Natalie holds the position of vice president of human resources for Emergent Health Partners, a provider of ambulance and emergent/urgent healthcare, based in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Previously, Natalie worked as human resources director for the University of Michigan School of Dentistry and PMA Consultants, LLC.

Natalie earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Florida A&M University, as well as a graduate certificate in human resources management from Eastern Michigan University. She also holds certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and as a Society for Human Resource Management—Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP). She regularly offers presentations on HR-related topics.

Formerly the president of the Michigan chapter of the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources, Natalie is an active member of the National and Greater Ann Arbor Society of Human Resources, the National Association of African Americans in Human Resources Michigan branch, and the Women of Color Task Force at the University of Michigan. In addition, Natalie volunteers at the Dispute Resolution Center in Ann Arbor.

Natalie's exceptional communication, problem-solving, and leadership skills, combined with her conflict-resolution abilities, make her a highly-valued member of the Brio Living Services Board.
