

Marjorie Almeda, DO, FACOI

Dr. Marjorie Almeda joined the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board of Directors in 2024. Dr. Almeda has served as the Medical Director for Huron Valley PACE in Ypsilanti since 2020 and is a member of its DEI and growth and utilization committees.

Dr. Almeda earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO) degree from Michigan State University and served as a Clinical Fellow in Geriatric Medicine at the University of Michigan Health System. She has taught at the collegiate level since 2000, most recently as Clinical Assistant Professor in Internal Medicine-Geriatric Medicine at the University of Michigan.

With a focus on the health and wellness of older adults over her 20+ year career, Dr. Almeda is dedicated to the PACE model of care (Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly). She serves as Site Director of PACE Rotation for the University of Michigan's Geriatric Fellowship and is a member of the Geriatric Fellowship Program Evaluation Committee.

A sought-after speaker and presenter, Dr. Almeda has shared her expertise at the PACE Association of Michigan and the National PACE Association conferences. She is also an active volunteer at Huron Valley PACE events, as well as at her church and local Catholic schools.

The UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board is grateful to benefit from Dr. Almeda's devotion to older adults, her clinical expertise, and her passion for the mission of PACE.
