Kathy Chase

Avenues Member since 2013

Retired anesthesiologist, Kathy Chase, joined Avenues because she knew she wanted to age at home and recognized the importance of having a plan in place to do that successfully. Finding assistance, especially from trustworthy people, can be difficult. Kathy trusts Avenues as her plan to age at home. "There are so many benefits to Avenues. I couldn't have made a better choice."

Kent and Kathy Tebbens

Avenues Members since 2016

Kent and Kathy joined Avenues as their proactive "future plan" for aging. Intrigued by the option of aging at home, Kent and Kathy recognized the financial benefits of Avenues and the flexibility that it offers to people who choose not to move to a senior living community.

Janet Boyles

Avenues Member since 2015

Janet Boyles, an early graduate of University of Michigan's BSN program and former Board member at Butterworth Hospital, values Avenues' support in helping her and her husband age at home. Her daughter, Lynne Marino, a Senior Financial Advisor at Merrill Lynch, discusses the program's financial advantages and shares her experience as a member's daughter.

Don't want to move into a retirement community? Neither did Jack and Lynn!

“As a retired physician, I have seen families with unlimited finances who still struggle to care for their parent at home. If you want to age at home, you must be proactive and must pre-determine who will care for you. I want to be in this house for the rest of my life. We have a commitment to our neighbors and our community, so we knew early on that we needed to plan proactively for aging at home.”
