

Terrence G. Quinn, Esq.

Terrence Quinn joined the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board of Directors in 2025. Terrence is a distinguished attorney with over two decades of experience specializing in estate planning and elder law. His extensive expertise, commitment to the legal community, and exceptional contributions to the field make him an excellent asset to the UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board.

Terrence's commitment to upholding the highest standards of legal practice and his passion for sharing his knowledge are evident throughout his career. He has served on the Executive Committee of Michigan's Institute for Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) and as Chair of the Real Property Trusts and Estates Section of the National Bar Association. In addition, he serves on the National Bar Board of Governors and its Executive Committee and is a past member of the Character and Fitness Committee of the State Bar of Michigan. A highly respected and sought-after speaker, Terrence is esteemed not only for his skills and dedication, but also as a source of inspiration.

The recipient of numerous prestigious awards, Terrence has been recognized as a Top 10 Attorney in Michigan for Estate Planning and selected as one of the Top 100 Attorneys in Michigan by the National Black Lawyers, among other accolades.

Terrence was a walk-on for the University of Michigan football team, eventually earning a full scholarship, and was a part of the university's 1997 national championship team.

In addition to his professional achievements, Terrence is dedicated to the communities he serves, including through former service as an ordained pastor.

The UMRC-Porter Hills Foundation Board is grateful to have Terrence's depth of knowledge and his servant heart in caring for the older adults at Brio Living Services.
