

John Flietstra

John Flietstra joined the Brio Living Services Board of Trustees in 2025 as the representative of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Grand Rapids.

John earned his BA degree from Calvin University and his MBA degree from Western Michigan University. A State of Michigan licensed CPA, John's career spanned a variety of public accounting, internal auditing, and finance roles. These included platform finance director for Johnson Controls and chief financial officer for Professional Educational Services Group, LLC. As a CPA for Deloitte, Haskins & Sells, his clients included West Michigan General Motors Divisions, West Michigan Red Cross, and Hope College. Most recently, John served as Controller for Alco Manufacturing/Lakeshore Fittings before retiring in 2024.

Married with three children and three grandchildren, John's interests include reading, traveling, and volunteering. His nonprofit experience includes serving as treasurer for the Baxter Community Center in Grand Rapids, West Michigan Parkinson's Support Center, and Westminster Presbyterian Church where he also served as a trustee.

The Brio Living Services Board is grateful for John's expertise and his devotion to service to his church and community.
