

Julie Korson, Chief Financial Officer, Brio Living Services

Julie was appointed in 2026 and has served Brio Living Services and its predecessor organization, Porter Hills, for nearly 20 years. She brings extensive experience in financial management, including budgeting, forecasting, long-term financial planning, billing, financial systems, financial reporting, and organizational financial analysis. Throughout her tenure, Julie has held positions of increasing responsibility within the Finance function and has been instrumental in supporting the organization's financial operations and long-term planning.

"After serving in a variety of for-profit sectors, my heart was quickly captured by every interaction within the not-for-profit senior living and aging services industry," Julie shares. "I continue to be amazed and proud of the variety of options available to those we serve."

Beyond her professional contributions, Julie reflects the heart of Brio through her service to others. She has supported her community through volunteer roles with public school systems, a local board of education, the Humane Society, and local churches.

Julie holds a Master of Science degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from the University of Louisville.
